LOOKING BACK

Doing the honors of 'carrying St. Peter' in 1979 at the San Pedro Festival were Dennis O'Connor, CHris Freitas, Tony Freitas and Larry Freitas

By Louisa Vessell
West Sacramento
Historical Society

The West Sacramento Historical Society Museum and Visitors Center, in cooperation with the San Pedro Annual Festival Association, will present an exhibit on the "San Pedro" historical festivals which began in 1922 and were held each June for 55 years in West Sacramento.

The annual San Pedro festival was held in the Bryte (northwest) district of what is now West Sacramento, and began as a fundraising event to help build a church on Madeira Island, Portugal. Many of Bryte's Portuguese community were born on the island.

The public is invited to the exhibit's opening reception on Sunday, August 14, from noon to 5:00 p.m.

The exhibit will be open from August 14 thru November 30, 2005.

A small chapel was built in San Pedro Park in Bryte and each year there was a parade with a queen selected for the celebration. It was an event that brought the community together and involved all the community.

The display will highlight photos and artifacts from the celebration that made the community of Bryte known throughout the state.

The San Pedro Association was organized in 1922 in honor of Saint Peter, when a Portuguese priest visited Madeira Island immigrant families living in the East Yolo area which is now part of West Sacramento. He had traveled from Portugal to raise funds to build a church on the "Monte" near the City of Funchal, Madeira Island. A gathering to solicit donations was held under the large oak trees where the current VFW Hall now stands on Lisbon Avenue in Bryte.

The priest was successful and the church that was built on Madeira Island still stands today. The gathering, later known as the San Pedro Festa, was held in Bryte and became an annual local event featuring two days of carne espito (barbeque beef), games, a traditional auction, religious procession and social activities.

The original grounds dedicated to the festa were on the banks of the Sacramento River in the township of Riverbank and in the 20s, the festa was called the Riverbank Festa. First the group utilized an old barn that belonged to the Russian community. Later, property was acquired along side the Russian Hall on the levee, located on what is now Riverbank Avenue. The federal government acquired the riverbank grounds in the early 1940s forcing the San Pedro Association to move the festa grounds to the present location on North Hobson Avenue in Bryte, It was previously the homestead of Mr. Antonio Silva, owner and proprietor of the Mecca Bar.

The annual event, which was discontinued during the war years of the 1940s, was re-established in 1950. As per Madeiran custom, a new chapel was built on the North Hobson property and the San Pedro Annual Festa continued again until 1979 when, due to local dispersal of the Madeiran community, the public festa was discontinued.

The annual festa was not only a Madeiran event, it was considered by the townsfolk as a Bryte community event.

Many families used the annual event as an infor-

Neighbors take a 'Night Out'

A number of West Sacramento neighborhoods joined local police and other sponsors in the "National Night Out Against Crime" on Tuesday, August 2.

Residents were encouraged to turn on their porch lights, lock their doors and come out and meet their neighbors. City blocks that did some planning in advance could arrange for a visit from police and other public safety professionals.

City spokespeople reported good participation in the event this year -- if not the unusually high turnout featured in the 2004 version of the annual event.

New bridge + new designs for riverfront:

City plans new Southport road connection

By Steve Marschke
News-Ledger Editor

Several dozen West Sacramentans were introduced on July 21 to a plan to expand South River Road and build a new bridge to help connect Southport homes, riverfront businesses and the freeway.

Construction of the additional lanes and new bridge is slated to begin in February of 2007, finishing in 2009.

"The project will build a four-lane facility from the freeway offramp to where it connects over there," said Rick Liptak of Dokken Engineering, at the meeting at city hall.

Engineers are studying how best to align the expanded road to have the least impact on landowners along the road's path. And they are looking at how to route the entirely-new stretch of South River Road that will pass a planned large park area near the Stone Locks.

One member of the public present at the meeting suggested moving "old" South River Road away from the riverfront at that current site just south of the barge canal, "creating development opportunity of the riverfront property."

Mike Luken of the West Sacramento Redevelopment Agency explained that much of the landscape along the South River Road corridor from the freeway southward will change in coming years.

"The wastewater treatment plant is slated to be closed in 2007, and to be decommissioned, and the facility removed," said Luken. "That 14.4 acre parcel has been designated as a city park, forecast to include a community center, with 'transient' or visitors' boat docks, possible sites for restaurant pads and that sort of thing for this site by the Stone Lock bluffs."

And the old industrial "tank farm" uses nearby are also set to go, added Luken.

"It is zoned waterfront mixed use, allowing commercial uses such as restaurants, offices and residences," he said. "The zoning does not allow expansion of industrial uses."

The workshop Thursday was designed to provide a project overview and begin soliciting public input.

Interchange at Harbor will receive $1 million in federal assistance

The Sacramento region will receive over $130 million in funding for 22 regional and local projects championed by the Sacramento Area Council of Governments. The funding is promised as part of SAFETEA LU, the Safe Accountable Flexible and Efficient Transportation Equity Act Legacy passed by Congress on July 29.

"Nearly all of our top priorities could receive some funding by this bill, which is good for the region and each of our local jurisdictions," said SACOG Board Chairman Ted Gaines, a Placer Supervisor.

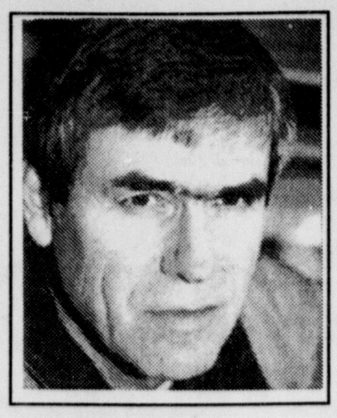
Among the promised federal funds are $1 million earmarked for improvements to the I-80 Harbor Boulevard interchange in West Sacramento, $800,000 for the Pacific Flyway Visitor Center Access Road in Yolo County (between Davis and West Sacramento) and $3.3 million for YoloBus.

The biggest funding winner in the region through SAFETEA LU was the approval of $71.6 million for I-80 carpool lanes in Placer County. The bill targeted transportation projects and air quality improvements in the six-county Sacramento region.

Local officials sent a large contingent to lobby federal elected officials in the "Cap-to-Cap" trip sponsored by the Sacramento Metro Chamber in March.

The only good wasp is a dead wasp

My Back Pages



By Daryl Fisher

The dictionary says wasps are "winged hymenopterous insects that have a slender, smooth body with the abdomen attached by a narrow stalk, well-developed wings, biting mouthparts, and in the females and workers, an often formidable sting. They are largely carnivorous and often provision their nests with caterpillars, other insects, or spiders killed or paralyzed by stinging." But what the dictionary doesn't take the time to mention is that wasps are mean and vicious little creatures which were put on this earth for no particular good reason that I have ever been able to discern.

My hatred of wasps goes way back to when I was a young lad of about eight or nine and was leisurely playing in my own backyard not bothering anyone. Back in those days most people dried their laundry by stringing up their washed clothes on clothes lines which were attached to two sturdy steel "T" poles about twenty-five feet or so apart. In my family's case, the poles were about six or seven feet high and perfect for a young boy to climb on, which I was doing one sunny afternoon when I decided to peek inside the hollow opening of one of the poles only to have a nesting wasp immediately fly into my eye and sting me. Talk about painful, plus the sting caused my eyelid to swell up and for most of a week I looked like I had been the loser in a brawl.

Then a few years later I learned the hard way that the darn things sometimes also nest in the ground when I stepped on a few of them while barefoot. Not only did I get stung numerous times on my foot, but apparently the leader of the gang roused the rest of the nest to action and a dozen or so of them chased me all the way down my block. And as recently as just a few years ago I discovered a whole colony of the nasty creatures nesting in the one bedroom addition I had made to my house. When I first spotted them, they were busy coming in and going out of a circular vent hole which had been left in the roof to improve attic circulation. I of course quickly began exploring deadly scenarios which might get rid of the problem once and for all and finally decided to go with a cheap, low-tech solution that would also satisfy my blood-lust when it comes to wasps. I simply stuck a tennis ball tightly in the hole and went to bed almost gleeful, knowing that I had entombed a dozen or so of the little monsters and sentenced them to die a slow and agonizing death.

So, last weekend, when my oldest son called me to borrow my extension ladder so he could reach a big wasp nest high above the entrance to his back door in his Southport home, I immediately said, "I will be right out to kill them for you!"

"That's okay, Dad," replied my son. "I can do it -- I just need to borrow your ladder."

"No, no," I replied, "if you want to use my ladder, then I get to do the killing. You see, it's personal with me and wasps!"

When I arrived on station (an old military term used to identity when you have the enemy in sight), I had my wasp-killing weapon of choice in hand -- a brand new full can of wasp and hornet insecticide that goes by the terrific name of Kill Zone. Not only does it shoot out a deadly 20-foot stream of lethal liquid which snuffs out wasps on contact, it also allows you to be far enough away from the nest to live and fight another day. Plus it is so nasty that the label warning says you're not even supposed to get it on asphalt shingles, much less human skin or any living vegetation or other insect you actually might like.

But first there had to be a good plan in place, having been out-foxed on numerous occasions in the past while trying to kill wasps, who are a lot smarter than they look.

"Why don't you just climb up the darn ladder and kill them," suggested my son.

"No," I explained, "it's not dark enough yet and some of them are still out foraging. We want to make sure each and every single one of them are back in the nest so I can get them all at the same time."

So, as my son and I waited patiently for night to fall, I (from a safe distance of course) smiled to myself as wasp after wasp returned to their little home, unaware that they had just seen their last sunset. I also observed that there were actually three separate wasp nests up under the overhang of my son's roof and was delighted to report that, "Wow, there has to be fifty -- maybe even a hundred of the darn things up there!"

"You better be careful," my son reminded me when the much anticipated moment finally arrived for me to begin ascending my ladder, one hand grabbing each higher rung while the other held tightly on to my trusty can of Kill Zone, my trigger finger getting antsy.

But as I climbed higher, I began to notice that it was getting pretty breezy. Before I had left the safety of the earth, I had carefully tested the wind to see how hard and which way it was blowing (I put some spit on my finger and put it up in the air) and concluded that the elements should be no problem. But much like what happens at a major league ballpark when the winds can be pretty calm near the field but quite strong and swirly above the stadium, by the time I reached my sniper perch, not only was the wind really blowing, but I was at the top of my ladder and still not as close to the wasp nests as I would have liked.

It didn't matter. My blood was up. So I took careful aim, pushed hard on the trigger, and off went as much of the deadly spray as I could make the can produce, and like all things in life, there was good and bad in the results. On the plus side, most of the spray reached the target, and dead and dying wasps began to tumble out of their nests. On the negative side, the wind ended up blowing much of the spray, and most of the wasps, right back into my face. So there I was, high above the ground, clinging to my ladder and also frantically trying to brush what I hoped were dead wasps from my hair and T-shirt. And when that task was finally finished, there was the problem of figuring out how to get all the wet, smelly, deadly wasp insecticide off of my face, hands, arms and scalp.

"Very well done, Dad," said my son when I finally reached the safety of the ground, slowly shaking his head from side to side as he often does when he contemplates the fact that he is related to me.

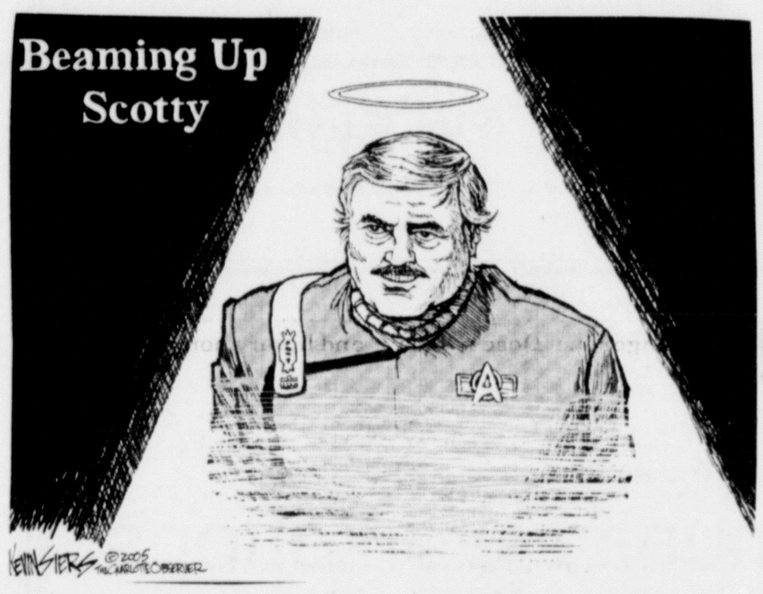
Beaming Up Scotty



Now here's a tip! by Jo Ann Derson

• Try this tasty and fun snack for kids on a hot day: Start with a triangular wedge of watermelon. Lay it face-down on a plate with the rind toward you. Make two impressions where eyes would be, and insert grapes. Cut the stem top off of a strawberry and set it cut-side down in the center of the watermelon and below the grapes (for a nose). Now you have a fruit smiley.

• "On rainy days, I set a shallow pan of water by the entrance to the house. The kids step into the water to rinse the grass and dirt off the bottoms of their shoes before taking them off and bringing them inside." — C.P. in Florida

• How long will it last? Canned fruit is good for about a year unopened and on the pantry shelf. But after opening, transfer unused fruit and syrup to a plastic container with a tight-fitting lid, refrigerate and use within a week.

• "One way to save a great deal of money (possibly) is to check with your doctor to see if it is OK to switch to a generic form of your medication. Generics are much less costly, and many are just as good as the name brands." — A.L. in Pennsylvania

• "For each child, I keep an under-bed storage box that gets filled throughout the year with items like classroom art, ticket stubs and special letters from the grandparents. When we have time throughout the year, we might scrapbook a page or two, but the real fun comes at the end of the year, when we take a whole day to go through the box and reflect on the year. Some items we keep, some get thrown away, but all are special because we have fun remembering the year. I thought I would share this tip in the summer, so your readers could start their own box and have stuff to go through at the end of the year." —

Community Workshops

on the City of West Sacramento's Bicycle, Pedestrian, and Trail Network

The City of West Sacramento is beginning the process of updating the Pedestrian and Bicycle Master Plan. The new Bicycle, Pedestrian, and Trail Master Plan will identify ways to enhance and expand the existing network of pedestrian and bike travelways and recreational trails, connect gaps in the system, and improve problem areas. The two workshops will include: 1) a presentation on the goals of the Master Plan and preliminary findings; 2) provide an opportunity for residents and stakeholders to ask questions and provide comments on pedestrian, bicycling, equestrian, and other non-motorized transport issues and opportunities in West Sacramento.

Come share your ideas for creating a more bicycle-, pedestrian-, and horse-friendly community at one of two community meetings on recreation, transportation, business and neighborhood connectivity:

- Discuss what parts of the existing pedestrian and bicycle commute and recreation network are working, what parts are not working, and what is missing
- Suggest improvements to existing streets, intersections, paths and trails - such as bike parking, signage or lane markings, benches, drinking fountains, staging areas - that would encourage you and your neighbors to ride and walk more
- Rate the "walkability", "bikeability", effectiveness, attractiveness, and safety of other non-motorized transport and recreation options in your neighborhood
- Discuss what the city can do to encourage more employers to provide amenities such as secure bike parking, lockers, showers, and commuter passes to assist bike and pedestrian commuters
- Tell us how to make West Sacramento a safer place for you and your children to walk, ride or skate to work, to school, for health, and for recreation

Workshop #1: Riding and Walking for Transportation
Wednesday, August 10, 2005, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.
City Hall Galleria, 1110 West Capitol Avenue, West Sacramento

Workshop #2: Riding and Walking for Recreation
Thursday, August 11, 2005, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.
City Hall Galleria, 1110 West Capitol Avenue, West Sacramento

Both workshops will include similar presentations on the planning process. While participants will be encouraged to provide input on issues and concerns related to the workshop title, discussion and suggestions will not be limited to transportation or recreation at either meeting. Please attend the session that fits your schedule!

POLICE LOG

Aug. 1, 11:37 a.m.
On July 30, two men arrived at a West Capitol retail business. One distracted the clerk inside while another made off with $165 worth of Coca Cola from an outside display. The affair was captured on a surveillance tape. One suspect was arrested on Aug. 1; the second was arrested while already in jail from an unrelated issue.

Aug. 3, 1:20 a.m.
An officer stopped a 33-year old man driving a car near 5th and F streets, for a vehicle code violation. The man was determined to be a gang member, out past curfew (related to a special anti-gang injunction in West Sacramento). A small amount of marijuana was also found. The subject was arrested.

Aug. 3
Police were called when a West Sacramento man got into the backyard of somebody else's Fernwood St. home, got onto the roof of a shed and broke its skylight. An officer found him on the shed's roof, and the suspect offered no reasonable explanation for being there. He was arrested.

Aug. 3, 1:07 a.m.
At a Maple Street apartment, a man reportedly shot off a gun and threatened a neighbor. When police knocked on his door, he didn't have the gun with him, but was arrested.

Aug. 3, 10:08 a.m.
A woman who had her wallet stolen in Oroville contacted West Sacramento police to say that some of her checks were being cashed in West Sacramento.

Aug. 3, 2:48 p.m.
A woman pulled into the West Capitol parking lot where she worked. A man drove up behind her and told her that her car had smoke coming from its trunk, and she should look at it. He sat in the car while she did so, and when she came back, her wallet was missing from her purse. The man had driven away.

Aug. 3, 9:40 p.m.
An officer stopped a car with a busted brake light on West Capitol. The 25-year old Sacramento man in the driver's seat admitted to having a suspended license. He was on searchable probation, prohibited from having any kind of weapon, but a search turned up a folding knife in the man's pocket as well as two small bags of marijuana under the car's seat. He was arrested.

Aug. 4, 4:40 a.m.
An officer stopped a suspicious vehicle near Ryer Island and Grizzly Bay roads. The 19-year old man driver had an outstanding warrant. He also consented to a search, which turned up some methamphetamine in the center console, latex gloves, a glass-breaking tool, a prybar and a two-foot steel pipe. The man was arrested.

Aug. 4, 1:05 a.m.
At a Seaport Blvd., a Honda Civic was reported burglarized, with a possible attempt to "hot wire" it. Some parts were missing.

Aug. 4, 7:48 a.m.
Police responded to an alarm at a West Capitol jewelry business – a glass breakage sensor and a motion detector both went off. Police found the back door pried open and numerous pieces of jewelry gone.

Aug. 4, 3:41 p.m.
A person reported a burglary to an Evergreen Circle apartment. "They took everything including the phone cord."

Aug. 4, 5:47 p.m.
A man outside the library was reportedly swearing and singing to himself. He had earlier been passed out at the location. Police took him into custody.

Aug. 4, 7:25 p.m.
An unoccupied car rolled out of a parking space and struck another unoccupied car on private property. The owners of one of the cars, which was blocking the roadway, couldn't be found, so the car was towed.

Aug. 5, 7:20 a.m.
A man called a woman at her Town Center Plaza business and threatened her.

Aug. 5, 7:55 a.m.
A 1983 Toyota Corolla was reported stolen from Michigan Blvd.

Aug. 5, 10:20 a.m.
Registration tags were lifted from a vehicle parked at a West Capitol trailer park.

Aug. 5, 11:09 a.m.
A Southport caller reported that a woman was in the caller's residence messing with her daughter. There was lots of yelling in the background of the call to police.

Aug. 5, 1:03 p.m.
Police arrested a subject on outstanding warrants and cleaned up the subject's illicit camp behind a gas station on West Capitol.

Aug. 5, 3:43 p.m.
A computer was reported stolen from a cubicle on Stillwater Business. The building was occupied during the night by a night staff and cleaning crew.

Aug. 5, 6:59 p.m.
Gang graffiti was reportedly sprayed on a fence on Topaz Road.

Aug. 5, 7:04 p.m.
A 911 call from Evergreen Circle was cut short. When dispatchers called back, a male at the residence said the call had been made by accident – but a woman in the background screamed that the call was not accidental. There were sounds of a struggle, and then the line was disconnected. Officers found that the woman was badly bleeding from being struck in the face, and her boyfriend was arrested.

SMUD files for right to serve in Yolo Co.

The Sacramento Municipal Utility District (SMUD) has filed an application for regulatory approval to take over electric service to West Sacramento, Davis, Woodland and adjacent unincorporated parts of Yolo County.

Those jurisdictions have asked SMUD to take the place of the privately-held PG&E Corporation. But PG&E opposes the move.

SMUD's application is filed with the Local Agency Formation Commission (LAFCo) in Sacramento, which will review the application, conduct an environmental review and seek public comment. The process could take a year, said a SMUD spokesperson.

If LAFCo approves the request, Yolo residents could vote on the issue during the November 2006 ballot, and – if approved – SMUD service could begin in the region around October of 2008, said SMUD.

Утверждение результатов выборов в Комитет района застройки Советом.
В ОТНОШЕНИИ ПРОЕКТА РЕКОНСТРУКЦИИ ГОРОДА WEST SACRAMENTO №1

Агентство по реконструкции города West Sacramento (далее «Агентство») рассматривает возможность внесения поправок в свой План реконструкции. Рассматриваемые поправки включают: 1) увеличение общего объема налоговых отчислений, доступного Агентству; 2) увеличение объема выпуска облигаций, доступного Агентству; и 3) восстановление полномочий Агентства по применению права отчуждения собственности в Районе застройки. Предлагаемые поправки не изменяют границ Района застройки, а также сроков, указанных в Принятом плане.

Согласно законодательству штата, а также для обеспечения участия общественности в процессе принятия поправок будет образован Комитет района застройки (Project Area Committee, PAC). Выборные члены Комитета района застройки будут назначаться путем голосования действующими собственниками жилья, арендаторами жилья и собственниками коммерческой недвижимости из Района застройки на местных выборах. В Комитет района застройки также войдут назначенные Советом представители действующих общественных организаций из Района застройки. Комитет района застройки будет рассматривать предлагаемые поправки и выносить по ним рекомендации, а также может консультировать Агентство по вопросам политики, которые затрагивают жильцов Района застройки.

- Утверждение результатов выборов в Комитет района застройки Советом. На этом заседании Городской совет утвердит результаты выборов в Комитет района застройки в соответствии с установленным порядком. В этот же день также пройдет назначение Советом представителей действующих общественных организаций в Комитет района застройки. Публичное слушание состоится в четверг 17 августа 2005 г в 19:30 или вскоре после этой даты, когда появится возможность сделать доклад по данному вопросу в залах заседания Городского совета, расположенных в здании муниципалитета по адресу 1110 West Capitol Avenue, West Sacramento.

OPINION

News-Ledger Editorial

This & that

Reader Jeff Henry forwarded information on a Senate bill by Senator Dianne Feinstein (Democrat) which would open up the bidding for any city wishing to host the World War II battleship "Iowa." The 987-foot vessel will presumably make someone a fine museum. Feinstein had hoped that San Francisco would provide a home for the big boat, but that city has withdrawn its pursuit of the Iowa.

Jeff wondered if, since the Port of Sacramento is having trouble cutting it as a shipping port, it might be put to use as the home to this 63-year old battleship and to the tourists who might pay to step aboard.

Meanwhile, a piece of legislation by Republican Congressman Richard Pombo of Tracy conflicts with Senator Feinstein's call for bids. The Pombo legislation calls for the federal government simply to give the Iowa to the Port of Stockton. (The governing board of the Port of Sacramento might grumble that it wouldn't be the first ship they lost to the Port of Stockton.)

The Iowa is currently on "reserve" status at a Suisun Bay mooring.

What do you think?

There's little doubt that West Sacramento will soon have the Port of Sacramento all to itself. The Powers that Be from both sides of the river that control the Port of Sacramento have delayed action long enough, right up until the word "bankruptcy" became a serious part of the discussion.

Now, West Sacramento and Yolo are asking the rest of the port's governing board to step away so that the region most intimately intertwined with the port can try to make a silk purse from a sow's ear. As the port is not a going concern these days, Sacramento is willing to walk away. The two sides are haggling over the price. They'll find one – probably entailing little or no cash "up front."

Housing prices shot up high and fast during the past few years. There's a bit of evidence from the professionals that prices may soon take a breather. Most pros that the News-Ledger has talked to don't expect a crash – just a softening of the market, as homes stay on the market a little longer and prices stall or possibly sag a bit.

That's if the predictions are correct, and this is the top of a run-up.

Letters to the Editor

Thank you!

This summer at the Yolo County Library, Arthur F. Turner Branch, we had a "Guessing Jar" in conjunction with our Summer Reading Program. Every week, different objects filled the jar, such as cotton balls, marbles, beans and plastic bugs. Children would submit a guess for the number of objects in the jar and at the end of the week, the closest guess would win a prize -- a hardback book!

We would not have been able to provide these wonderful books without the help of the following sponsors: Terri L. Davis (CPA), Club Pheasant, Clark Pacific, and Hollywood Hardware. That you sponsors for all you support!

If you are interested in being a sponsor for next summer's "Guessing Jar", please contact us at 375-6465.

Suggestions for upcoming workshop

On August 10th (today) the city is holding a community workshop from 6-8 p.m. at the city hall seeking input as to how we can better improve West Sac's bicycle, pedestrian and trail network. The following suggestions are offered toward those goals:

1. Repair sidewalks, including making all corners wheelchair-accessible.

2. Consider treating recycled tire rubber (to make it non-flammable) and make it part of the sidewalk compound.

3. Storm drains: They should be city-wide and at least near all corners and the grill covers should have bars both ways to prevent bike accidents.

4. Remind the public of the danger of running stop signs and red lights.

5. Take a tip from Woodland and provide heavy-duty, 4-person bus benches, including features that discourage sleeping. We also need a bus stop and shelter at Raley Field.

6. DMV offices should supply local public transit pocket schedules.

7. Expand bus service to/from our Southport and Industrial Park areas.

8. Coming off the Tower Bridge before right turn on 3rd Street: That pedestrian crossing should be upgraded like South River Road is on the south side, alerting right-turners such a crosswalk exists.

9. The senior center on Cummins way needs traffic advisory signs like the ones on Merkley Avenue. Also, we need re-painting of the crosswalk for the safety of seniors and others nearby.

10. Locate bus stops so more will be in the shade during the hottest hours.

11. Relocate residential street signs to streetlight corners, making them more visible at night.

12. Replace the large island on Park Boulevard (near school) with mini-island, walkway and 4-way stop signs.

If one misses the August 10th meeting, a similar one will be held August 11th at the same place, with the emphasis on riding and walking for recreation.

Council Certification of PAC Election.

FOR THE WEST SACRAMENTO REDEVELOPMENT PROJECT NO. 1

The West Sacramento Redevelopment Agency (Agency) is considering amending its Redevelopment Plan. The amendments being considered include 1) increasing the total amount of tax increment the Agency can receive; 2) increasing the Agency's bonding capacity; and 3) re-establishing the Agency authority to use eminent domain in the Project Area. The proposed Amendment will not change the boundaries of the Project Area or modify any other existing time limits outlined in the Existing Plan.

As required by State law, and in order to provide community input into the amendment process, a Project Area Committee (PAC) will be formed. The PAC is a group of elected residential owner occupants, elected residential tenants, and elected business owners from the Project Area. The elected members of the PAC will be voted in by existing residential owner occupants, residential tenants, and business owners from within the Project Area at a community election. The PAC will also include Council appointed existing community organizations from the Project Area. The PAC will review and make recommendations on the proposed Amendment and may advise the Agency on policy matters that affect the residents of the Project Area.

Council Certification of PAC Election. At this meeting the City Council will certify that the PAC election occurred according to adopted procedures. Council appointments of existing community organizations to the PAC will also be made on this date. The public hearing will be held on Wednesday, August 17, 2005, at the hour of 7:30 P.M., or as soon thereafter as the matter can be heard, in the City Council Chambers located at City Hall, 1110 West Capital Avenue, West Sacramento.

Any questions relative to the above matters may be directed to Shanna Wasserman, Redevelopment Analyst at (916) 617-4535. As information becomes available, please refer to the City's web page at www.ci.west-sacramento.ca.us for additional information on the PAC formation process.

"Wedding Crashers"

Running time: 113 minutes
MPAA rating: R

"Wedding Crashers" is one of the funniest movies of the year. It's also subversive. The first half of the movie (and the commercials promoting it) give you the impression it's a rollicking, bawdy sex comedy a la "American Pie" or "Porky's."

Then, about mid-film, the whole shebang downshifts into Chick Flick/Date Movie mode — which is not necessarily a bad thing.

The film stars Vince "Psycho" Vaughn and Owen "Butterscotch Stallion" Wilson as Jeremy Grey and John Beckwith, two divorce mediators who have spent more than a decade crashing weddings in order to take advantage of emotionally vulnerable female guests.

Things are going well for the boys until they decide to crash the Super Bowl of weddings, the nuptials of the daughter of a high-powered Washington, D.C. politician (Christopher Walken). At the reception, the guys run into two women who'll change their lives, the two remaining daughters of the politician. John falls for Claire (Rachel McAdams), while Jeremy gets entangled with the freaky-deaky redheaded Gloria (Isla Fisher).

Once the guys get invited to Walken's country house, "Wedding Crashers" stops being the bawdy, original comedy we've settled into, and moves into romantic comedy territory. With the exception of a few scenes and a hilarious cameo (I won't spoil it), the film's originality stops and we're left with sitting through the same cliched Boy-Meets-Girl, Boy-Loses-Girl, Boy-Wins-Her-Back plot.

We already know what's going to happen 10 minutes before the characters get there, and as a result the movie's pace drags. If it weren't for the solid performances of the entire cast, "Wedding Crashers" would've crashed and burned.

Check it out.

THE CHOPPING BLOCK

SEAFOOD SALAD IS PERFECT SUMMER FARE

Salad may be an impromptu dinner made with foods already in the fridge, or it may be a planned composition of well-drained leafy greens, vegetables, meat, chicken, hard-cooked eggs, fish, cheese or any other protein that will make it stick to the ribs.

Many a hot summer day, my mother would plan a huge salad for dinner, served in our large, shallow pasta bowl. And it's still my favorite salad. There would be a variety of greens, cucumber, green bell pepper, tomatoes and, most essential, cut-up hard-cooked eggs. Often she would toss in cubed cheese and boiled ham.

The dressing was simply olive oil and red wine vinegar, not whisked but poured on separately and well tossed. What I love about this salad is that the egg yolk breaks away from the white and coats the other ingredients so that every mouthful has a taste of egg.

Mom's salads were always tossed: Who had time to arrange them on a platter, having five kids, a husband and an aunt and uncle? To be honest, my great-aunt shared cooking chores.

But enough of memories ... here is an arranged salad you'll be proud to set on the table. It's a change from tossed greens and is composed of vegetables, shrimp and scallops, and Norway's gift to the cheese world: Jarlsberg.

If you like, you could toss a few greens with dressing and line the platter, then make your arrangement atop the greens. You might also substitute meat instead of seafood. Our recipe is just a guide for your own ideas.

ARRANGED SALAD JARLSBERG

1-1/2 to 2 pounds snow peas, green beans and asparagus
1 to 1-1/2 pounds combination of seafood: surimi (or crab meat), medium to large cooked shrimp and sea scallops
1-1/2 cups (6 ounces) cubed Jarlsberg or Jarlsberg Lite cheese
1 cup diced red and/or yellow bell peppers
3 tablespoons olive oil PLUS 1 tablespoon sesame oil (or 4 tablespoons olive oil)
Juice and zest of 1 lemon
Freshly ground black pepper to taste
3 tablespoons toasted sesame seeds

Remove strings from snow peas and cut peas in half. Cut green beans into 1-inch lengths. Slice tender green stems of asparagus, leaving heads intact.

Clean and devein shrimp. Cook scallops 2 minutes and slice horizontally.

Bring a pot of water to a boil. Add green beans; boil 2 to 3 minutes. Add asparagus and boil 2 minutes. Add snow peas and boil 1 minute. Drain; plunge into cold water to stop cooking process. Drain and dry on paper towels.

Arrange vegetables around edge of serving platter or individual plates. In center of plate arrange seafood and cubed Jarlsberg. Sprinkle with diced bell pepper. Whisk oil with lemon juice and zest, adding black pepper to taste. Drizzle over salad; sprinkle with sesame seeds. Makes 4 to 6 main-dish servings or 8 to 10 as appetizer.

mal reunion to renew old acquaintances and talk about " the good old days". For many years, a spectacular fireworks display was provided each evening. Members of the San Pedro Association prepared 2,000 pounds of prime beef, quartered into small chunks and soaked in a special Madeiran marinade of wine, spices and bay leaf sprigs, and placed on iron spits. Once the meat was purchased, attendees cooked their skewered beef to their own liking, and enjoyed an abundance of cold beer, soda, French bread, salads and mixed drinks.

During the festival, Sunday was the big day. A parade featured such participants as the Bryte Volunteer Fire Department, the Boy Scouts, Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Manhart Legion Drum and Bugle Corp, the Cameron Bagpipe Band, the Camilla City Band, and Little League groups.

Children were recruited from most of the families in Bryte to ride on the floats, carrying flags and banners. The stronger teenage boys had the honor of carrying the statue of Saint Peter in its' flower bedecked carrier to and from the church. Of course the glory was always in being selected the junior and senior San Pedro Festa queens. The honor was bestowed on member families with girls of suitable ages, although young girls were selected on occasion outside of the immediate organization.

On Saturday evening, the queens were honored by a coronation, after which followed a dance on the open-air dance floor under the stars. A live band was always present. The parade would form in front of the park and march off to Holy Cross Church for the mass in honor of Saint Peter.

Visiting queens, their families and officers from the other Portuguese organizations from Freeport, Lincoln, Rio Vista, and Sacramento were invited and participated in the festivities.

The museum is located at (324 Third St., in the Broderick district of West Sacramento. It can be reached at (916) 374-1849.

Despite her superstitious mother's strenuous efforts, Rose is born facing north, a direction that foretells a wandering and restless life and a cold death in the snow and ice. Her parents try to conceal the omen, but Rose's destiny is revealed the night a tremendous white bear slams into their house and demands Rose come with him in return for health and prosperity for her ailing family.

Rose accepts, and journeys to the bear's home, which she is surprised to find is a fantastic palace carved into the side of a mountain. Gradually, she pieces together the white bear's incredible story: The powerful Troll Queen, obsessed by the once-human boy's alien beauty, has trapped him within a powerful enchantment.

For uncounted years he has tried to fight it, but Rose is the only one who has the power to free him from his loneliness and an eternity of captivity. But something goes terribly wrong, and now in order to save her friend, Rose must undertake an arduous, dangerous journey to the Troll Queen's palace, located "east of the sun and west of the moon" and far into the frozen north of Rose's destiny.

The story of "East" is based on a Scandinavian folk tale, incorporating elements of the myths of "Cupid and Psyche" and "Beauty and the Beast." To make it her own, Pattou has crafted a narrative that merges elements of realism and fantasy into a seamless, enthralling adventure.

Rose's journey is fraught with peril — not just from magical terrors, but also from the dangerous power of the indifferent natural world. Rose is brave and smart, but also stubborn and impetuous; she's a complex and realistic heroine that readers can both identify with and root for.

Jill Jackson's HOLLYWOOD

John Travolta

HOLLYWOOD ... John Travolta is one of the most likable people in show biz. He's polite, answers questions intelligently when interviewed, has his pick of parts in pics, a wonderful married life, a lovely wife and children, and he's most proud about his new ranking in the flying world. He is now a captain, can fly a 747 (he owns one) and can fly anywhere he wishes. There AIN'T NOBODY more handsome than John when he's all decked out in uniform — his epaulets shining and his face smiling!

Kate Hudson's next will be "You, Me and Dupree" co-starring Owen Wilson for Universal Pictures. It's a fun comedy about a newlywed couple and the problems that develop when the groom's best man moves in — supposedly for a brief period, but because he is unemployed, the stay extends and extends ... and extends! Kate can now be seen on the big screen in "Skeleton Key." As to Goldie's little girl's private life, everything seems to be going well. Kate is managing momhood, wifehood and a BIG CAREER, and that takes quite a bit of juggling.

Big excitement! Julia emerged, looking like anything BUT a big movie star. There she was, pushing Phin and Hazel around the streets of Venice, Calif., (that's down on the ocean). The babes were in double buggies, but could not be seen because of the tops. ... And it's still babies, babies, babies, which never ceases to amaze me, because when I first started reporting Hollywood news, momhood was definitely NOT a star's first priority. I suppose you could call Brooke and Gwennie and Demi and Britney and Madonna and Kate and Julia pioneers.

Probably the two most repeated phrases from movies are Bette Davis' "Whatta dump" and Humphrey Bogart's "Play it again, Sam." If Bogey had never done anything else, he would always be remembered for that. Did you know that the role of Rick in "Casablanca" was offered to George Raft, and he turned it down! ... And you probably won't believe this, but 'tis true. Billy Wilder's first choice for Norma Desmond in "Sunset Boulevard" was Mae West! She was highly insulted by being asked to play a "has-been" and turned down the role. Probably the worst decision of her life. Gloria Swanson was superb.

BITS 'N' PIECES: Brad Pitt looked glamorous but "tatty" when he appeared at the Foreign Press luncheon. Blonde hair sticking up, and a funky white shirt. ... Christian Bale and Steve Zahn set to co-star in "Rescue Dawn," an action drama to shoot in Thailand. ... Hollywood recently mourned the loss of James Doohan, who played the chief engineer of the Starship Enterprise. ... Sly Stallone and his wife, Jennifer, spending the dog days aboard his yacht docked in Portofino, Italy. Tough, wouldn't you say? ... Catherine Zeta-Jones Douglas fooled a lot of people when she browsed about in a short blond wig. ... Please, please. To all of you: Don't ask me about Jude Law's love life. I can't keep up with it. ... And the same goes for the Olsen twins. ... Britney's 14-year-old sister, Jamie Lynn, is looking more like her big sis every day, AND it looks like she too may be singing her way to superstardom. ... Fun to see big hunk Matt LeBlanc walking his tiny Chihuahua. ... Quite a buzz at a posh Beverly Hills restaurant when Hugh Grant dropped in for lunch. It's easy to get a table without a reservation — when you're Hugh Grant. ... Wish I could give you the true status of Melanie and Antonio, but my source doesn't have a connection any more. We'll just have to wait this one out. ... Meanwhile the sidewalks sizzle from a heat wave, and Hollywood "scorches" on.

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS

The Sacramento River registered 21 feet, U. S. gauge at the S. P. bridge yesterday. The gauge last Monday showed a reading of 20 ft. 1 in., but on account of the unusual heavy fall of rain since that date the gauge has gradually raised to 21 feet. The total rainfall for the season is now 16.11 inches, or nearly normal, and the late fall of rain all in the month of April is shown to be 2.11 inches. Seldom have such favorable conditions prevailed for the farmers of California and particularly for those who are farming grain and vegetables. Many grain fields that would have been cut for hay have taken another grand hold and will return to their owners splendid crops during the coming harvest. Throughout the West Sacramento district a wonderful change has taken place since the first showers of about ten days ago. At that time great spinach patches looked as if they were about to wilt, but since that time the spinach crop has taken a new hold with the result that now great truckloads of the succulent vegetable are being hauled to the canneries in Sacramento.

The Washington Star Club made its social dance last Friday night in the public school building a social and financial success. A splendid crowd of youngsters and old people, too, attended the dance to help along the organization. The net returns from the dance were $18, out of which a donation was immediately made to the community church to help the painting of the edifice which is so badly needed and which will be done during this spring. Later on the club intends to give a minstrel show for a similar purpose.

A. K. Weir, a late arrival from Honolulu, was a visitor in Washington yesterday. Weir is a native of Glasgow, Scotland, and is a member of the oldest lodge of Odd Fellows west of the Rocky Mountains and which is located in Honolulu. He intends to remain in Washington or Sacramento during the coming summer.

Mrs. Cecelia Hart returned to Colfax last Wednesday to remain for a month or more, when she expects to return to remain here during the summer.

Vern Porter came home from Los Angeles yesterday, after an absence of several months. He expects to remain with his mother for a prolonged visit, but intends to return to Los Angeles later on.

On complaint of A. Theriot last Wednesday, Alfred Wilkinson and Frank Corcoran were held by Judge Barry under $500 cash bail or $1,000 bond to appear before the justice court this morning for preliminary trial. Theriot complained that Wilkinson and Corcoran had held him up in his tent at Third and Margaret Streets on April 10th, between midnight and 1 a. m. and robbed him of $60 in cash. He identified the two men thoroughly and complained that they had bound and gagged him so that he might make no outcry after they got away with his valuables. Wilkinson is known to the police of Sacramento, having had a previous conviction against him and being out on parole at the present time. Corcoran claims a perfect alibi and so far as is known has no previous convictions against him. This morning the case was tried before Judge Barry too late to get the result in press.

James Caffero is reported to be improving rapidly in a San Francisco hospital, but is not expected to return to his home for some time to come.

A hard time dance will be held next Saturday night in the town hall at which every person will be welcome and where the lines will not be drawn for or against anyone who has not a dress suit or a fancy gown to wear. A splendid orchestra has been furnishing music for these dances and has been making them very popular with the young folks of the town and with the dancers of Sacramento and neighboring points.

C. McIlheny is a visitor in Washington for a few days, being down from Plumas County where he has spent the last six months in mining and lumbering.

Anthony Dean is also visiting some old friends in Washington from the Edison plant near Fresno. Periodically Dean and McIlheny come around to visit their old haunts and to renew friendships cultivated during the years of social intercourse.

Martin McDonough expects to leave Washington within the next two weeks to spend the summer at Westwood where he has secured a position with the Smith Lumber Company.

The Parent-Teacher Association is preparing for a dance in the public school building tonight at which all the children of the public school are expected to be present.

Fraser & Doyle in their service station on Fifth Street near Anne, are now fully equipped to render first-class service for auto drivers in this town and to transients. The station is thoroughly equipped to accomodate all comers but the patronage of local auto owners is particularly solicited. This is the finest station of its kind located in Washington, and is deserving of the support of all the auto owners in the community.

Supervisor W. J. Leinberger went to San Francisco last Wednesday morning with all the other members of the board. Official business of the county called the board to San Francisco.

The teachers' rest room of the Washington school is being fitted up with attractive drapes and pictures. The money for the furnishings was secured from the dance given a few weeks ago by the teachers of the school.

Mrs. Perry Moore of San Francisco is a guest at the home of Mrs. I. K. Manchester.

Leland Peek is at Caldor, where he will be employed during the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Maitoza returned to San Jose after a visit at the Baglin home.

Bernice Butters, niece of Mrs. Herman Garber, sustained a broken collar bone last Friday in a fall while skating.

A number of Washington residents went to Woodland Saturday night to attend the high school performance of The Pirates of Penzance in which Ruth Richard took part.

Lester Strader and Thomas Newton have returned to their home here from San Jose, where they have been recently employed.

A. M. Cameron attended the Shriners' meeting in Oroville Saturday and returned to his home here Monday.

Mrs. William Wood returned to her residence here after spending the week-end visiting with friends in San Francisco.

A. L. Case and family were visitors in Challenge Saturday and Sunday. They returned to their home here Sunday.

Others in That Class, Too

The editor of a country paper recently reported that he had received a news item from one of his many painstaking correspondents. The item read to the effect that a bride in the neighborhood had excited considerable comment among neighbors by kneeding bread with her gloves on.

The editor, seizing upon the opportunity presented, used the item in his paper, adding as an appendix, "The editor of this paper needs bread with his shoes on, he also needs it with clothes on, but if some of the delinquent subscribers don't pay up pretty soon, he will need bread without a darn thing on."

MILITARY TRAINING CAMP WILL TAKE SIX FROM YOLO COUNTY

Only six young men between the ages of 17 and 24 years, from Yolo County will have an opportunity to enjoy a month's vacation and training in ideal surroundings, July 26th to August 24th, at the Citizens' Military Training Camps at Del Monte and Fort Winfield Scott, according to announcement of quotas for the State just made by Colonel E. V. Smith, chief of staff, 91st division, Presidio of San Francisco, California, who is to command this year's camps and to whom inquiries and applications should be sent.

These camps, as part of the National Defense Act, will provide everything for the material comfort of the 1,000 young men who will attend. Transportation from any part of the State to and from the camp will be furnished the students and they will be provided with uniforms, meals, medical atendance, musical entertainments, etc., without one cent of expense to themselves.

"There is no obligation for military service beyond the period of the camp," Colonel Smith says, "and the youth fortunate enough to be selected from Yolo County will find himself in ideal surroundings and excellent company. After a month of clean living under the observing eyes of experienced, carefully selected officers, he should return home bigger, stronger and better in every way. At the rate applications are coming in, the quota from your county should be filled within a few days and California youths intending to participate this year should rush their applications in immediately."

HOLLAND LAND COMPANY HAS STARTED RIVER SUIT AGAIN

Irrigation companies that have been formed within the past 25 years for using the waters of the Sacramento and San Joaquin Rivers and all tributaries, are sought to be enjoined from such use in a suit filed in the Superior Court of San Joaquin County at Stockton. The suit is brought by the Holland Land Company, whose extended holdings are located in the vicinity of Clarksburg, Yolo County, and 143 other plaintiffs against over 500 defendants, including corporations, municipalities and landowners.

Among the defendants named are the City of Sacramento, City and County of San Francisco, State Fish and Game Commission, State Department of Public Works, Division of Land Settlement, Delta Farms, Inc., and all irrigation districts between Sacramento and Lathrop.

The plaintiffs pleaded that from time immemorial they have enjoyed the riparian rights of the streams, and they seek to enjoin the defendants from diverting, taking or using the waters of any of the streams named, which include, in addition to the two major rivers, the Fresno, Chowchilla, Mokelumne, Merced, Stanislaus, American, Calaveras, Yuba, Feather, Pit and McCloud Rivers, in addition to other streams.

Plaintiffs claim crops are dependent upon the use of the waters and that the large diverting of the waters tends to diminish the flow of water and plaintiffs are damaged by such diversion and use.

AUTO WRECKED AND FOUR OCCUPANTS BADLY INJURED AT 6TH STREET

An all-night celebration ended seriously last Sunday for Jack Souza, former local pugilist, and three negroes when their automobile, a Peerless Eight, turned over at the turn at Sixth Street and seriously injured them.

The injured are:

Jack Souza, compound fracture of the right arm and injuries to the head.

Sherman Spates of Bakersfield, deep cuts from broken glass.

John Brown, 1414 Third Street, broken ankle and ribs.

Charles Beal of Los Angeles broken back.

Spates, driver of the car, was evidently intoxicated, according to Dr. Timothy Lyman, who treated the injured people at the city emergency hospital. Two carloads of negroes were traveling together and the one that was wrecked tried to negotiate a sharp turn in the highway while going at a high rate of speed.

Dr. C. E. Bittner stated that the fracture of the back suffered by Beal may not cause him to be permanently crippled.

Souza sustained a compound fracture of the right arm and injuries to the head. Sherman Spates, Bakersfield, received deep cuts from broken glass. John Brown, 1414 Third Street, sustained a broken ankle and broken ribs, and Charles Beal, Los Angeles, received a broken back.

ENTERTAINMENT TO HELP CHURCH APRIL 21

Saturday evening, April 21st, several young ladies of Washington will conduct a dance in the town hall building for the benefit of the Catholic Church in Washington.

Those young ladies love to dance, and because they love it so well they believe that other people should be similarly minded.

They even believe that their parents and their friends should love to dance as they do, and on that acocunt they leave no opportunity go by without formulating some chance to get another dance.

The young ladies mentioned as Lillian Lear, Olga Machado, Mary Traversi, Mary Anater, Noreen Taylor and Edwig Marty, who helps out the girls to frame the stunts that bring the crowd.

The dance on April 21st will be held for the benefit of the Catholic Church in Washington whose finances are anything but satisfactory to the pastor and to the supporters who give so much to help along a worthy cause.

Say it with moonshine—the flowers will come later.

FIREMEN EXPECT TO REORGANIZE TO MAKE EFFICIENT FORCE

For next Monday night a meeting has been called by the fire commissioners to reorganize the volunteer fire department of Washington.

The meeting will be held in the town hall at 8 p. m. and all those having at heart the welfare of the community are invited to be present. Particularly are those invited who joined the fire department prior to September, 1917, or immediately before the general call to arms came to the World War.

For some time past there has been more or less laxity in the fire department, mostly owing to the fact that the fire commissioners were older men with families, scarcely able to devote their evenings to public meetings and in addition were men engaged in hard work that left them tired and unwilling to leave their homes at nighttime.

The present board of commissioners is composed of younger men, Dave Barry, Ray Peek and W. Bartle. These men want to make the volunteer fire department of Washington second to none of its kind in the State. Previously this was done and it can be done again so that in case of a serious fire a full force of trained fire fighters may be ready to protect the homes of the people.

It is not only those who are owners of property in the town but all residents having homes and families to protect should be interested in the welfare of the fire department. Nearly all the men of the town are absent during the day at their labor, leaving only a few with time and opportunity to attend to the affairs of the volunteer firemen.

Under the direction of the new board of fire commissioners such organization is possible and should revert to the benefit of the home owners of the town.

• When infamous bank robbers Bonnie and Clyde were finally tracked down by authorities, there was a violent gun battle — immortalized in rather gory detail in the 1967 film "Bonnie and Clyde." To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of Alexandra J. Lokteff, Alexandra Lokteff.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Michael Lokteff in the Superior Court of California, County of Yolo.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Michael Lokteff be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on Sept. 13, 2005, at 8:30 a.m., in Dept. 11, Superior Court of California, County of Yolo, 725 Court St., Woodland, CA 95695.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

The time for filing claims will not expire before four months from the hearing date noticed above.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a "Request for Special Notice" (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A "Request for Special Notice" form is available from the court clerk.

Pointers For Painters

The Classics For Tots

(NAPS)—A growing number of young children are getting an early appreciation of the beauty of classical music, art and dance thanks to three DVDs that bring these worlds to life through stunning animation.

Parent and child can be brought together through a magical blend of classical music, art and dance.

The DVDs from HBO Video, "Classical Baby: The Art Show," "Classical Baby: The Music Show" and "Classical Baby: The Dance Show," each feature a 30-minute animated fine arts program led by a baby maestro and an all-animal orchestra presenting the best from renowned composers, choreographers and painters.

Says child psychiatrist Eugene Beresin, M.D., Associate Professor of Psychiatry, Harvard Medical School, "Sharing creative and loving experiences can help build what child development experts call a 'secure attachment' between parents and their children. Classical Baby is a wonderful way to bring parents and children closer through the process of listening, playing and learning together."

Unlike other videos for young children, "Classical Baby" was also created to appeal to parents. The program provides a viewing experience that's entertaining and interactive. Each DVD includes extra features such as a Parent's Guide, which includes activities for parent and child, information on developmental milestones and nutrition, and on-screen information on the artists and musical pieces.
